

Literacy Council of Northern Virginia

In-Service: Teaching Listening & Speaking Skills to Adult English Language Learners

Do you want to learn how to improve the way you teach listening and speaking skills? The Literacy Council will be providing a free in-service workshop, which will focus on teaching listening and speaking skills to learners. Held on Friday, October 28, 2011, the training will be from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

The goal of the workshop is to increase skills in teaching, and assessing listening and speaking skills of those teaching adult English language learners. This training is appropriate for LCNV ESOL tutors as well as for classroom teachers.

At the end of the workshop, participants should be able to:

- Recognize the purpose and underlying principles of five oral production and assessment techniques;
- Identify key steps in teaching oral skills;
- Adapt activities for multilevel classes;
- Describe performance and content standards;
- Identify characteristics of good assessments.

Important Note: In order to attend this workshop, you need to complete the From Intake to Achievement: Virginia Adult ESOL Content Standards Training Online. If you have not already taken this online training, please sign up. You must have completed this prerequisite before you may enroll.

To register for this training, go to:
<http://www.valrc.org/trainings/ero.html> and log into ERO.
Click on the Course Catalog tab, and search for SRN: 2011102801

Registration ends: 10/24/2011 04:00 PM

Location: Literacy Council of Northern Virginia
James Lee Community Center
2855 Annandale Rd.
Falls Church, Virginia 22042

Contact: Page Stirrup
Email: pbstirrup@vcu.edu
Phone #: 804-828-6521 or 800-237-0178

Come out and take advantage of this free training. Hope to see you there!

